The cheating problem in PC Destiny 2

Bungie Suggestion

It took a while before it came to this, but I've been encountering more and more cheaters, especially in trials. These are indestructable, instakillers, and its getting extremely frustrating.

Bungie please, if you care anything about the growth of Destiny 2, at least on PC, you need to address this issue, as it will only frustrate and drive people away.

I have played less games without disconnects or cheaters today, than games WITH cheaters and disconnects.

Might quit Destiny 2 at this rate if it doesn't change.

Views are going to tank but I am kinda done until this is patched. Sorry.

Yet, I have some great momentum. Some of my streams are INSANE.

I have a good thing going, but I'm just so tired of this.

Do I take the hit to be more happy? Will I be more happy watching my audience tank?

the cheaters stuff won't be simply patched. Bungie doesn't have an active anti-cheat engine in the game. They'll need to partner with someone to do that. Gonna be months until they can fully address it, and a cat and mouse game until then

Just hope Anthem 2.0 arrives and it is actually good. I'm starting to feel burn out as well

Switch over to console for a bit man. It's definitely slower paced, but less bullshit I guess. Lol

If you come across cheaters, don't message them, or try to contact them - report them to bungie and hopefully something gets done about this rampant issue.
